

Winter Whispers

Snow falls soft and light silent footsteps disappear

hush of frozen air

Golden Sunrise

Light spills on the hills

morning wakes with quiet breath dreams dissolve in gold

Dancing Petals

Cherry blossoms fall wind carries their soft embrace springtime's fleeting kiss

Rippling Water

Stones skip on the lake ripples reach for the far shore silence fills the air

Autumn Leaves

Crimson leaves descend whispering their last goodbyes wind hums through the trees

Endless Ocean

Waves crash on the shore endless blue meets endless sky

time drifts with the tide

Night's Lullaby

Moonlight strokes the waves stars hum quiet melodies night sings soft and low

Mountain Path

Footsteps press the earth

winding through the mist and stone sky rests on the peaks

Lonely Lantern

Its light in the dark flickering in the cold breeze whispers to the night

Soft Spring Rain

Droplets kiss the leaves

earth inhales the quiet mist

silver threads descend

Echoing Silence

Empty halls whisper

echoes dance along the walls

Rustling Bamboo

Wind through slender reeds bending but never breaking whispers in the shade

Distant Thunder

The sky holds its breath shadows stretch before the storm thunder walks slowly

Hidden Footsteps

The path fades away

only wind knows where it leads silence marks the way

Frozen River

Ice locks time in place

a river trapped in silence

waiting for the thaw

Drifting Clouds

Shadows move like ghosts

silent travelers of sky

never turning back

Candle's Glow

Its flame bends and sways dancing in the quiet dark melting time away

Empty Teacup

The warmth still lingers steam curls in the morning air silence tastes of tea

Vanishing Footsteps

Snow erases all the footprints of yesterday

time leaves no shadow

Falling Stars

Wishes burn the sky

streaks of light lost in the dark gone before the dawn
